LORI WALKER HEAD COACH

Student-athletes who choose to pursue their soccer careers at Ohio State University are instructed, mentored and cared for by an innovative and expert coaching staff led by North Carolina graduate and Big Ten Coach of the Year Lori Walker. Now in her 16th year on the Columbus campus, Walker and her staff have led the Buckeyes to seven NCAA tournament appearances in the last 10 years, most recently in 2011 when Ohio State advanced to the Sweet 16 for the second consecutive season.

Walker surrounds Ohio State's student-athletes with creative teachers that include associate head coach Glen Tourville, who has 20 years experience as a collegiate head coach; Jason Goodson, an assistant in his first season in Columbus after four years at Washington State; and Spencer "Deuce" Bownas, who has been associated with Buckeye soccer for the past nine seasons. The staff instructs through a blend of team and character-building exercises and individual skill development that creates a perfect chemistry for winning games and reaching goals.

Credit Walker for assembling such a terrific staff and for allowing her assistants the freedom to coach, to lead and to experiment. That's what experience as a coach will allow and Walker's experience, soccer knowledge and ability to build skills extend way beyond the impressive Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium and the lovely Ohio State campus.

Wins, Championships and NCAA's

Walker has 17 years experience as a Division I head coach with two years as head coach at the University of Kansas - she was the first coach in KU history - preceding her 15 completed seasons at Ohio State. Walker has a 183-143-25 record as a head coach, including a 170-120-24 record at Ohio State. She has guided 10 teams to 10-or-more-wins seasons and has coached four teams that set single season wins records, including the 2004 Ohio State team that won a school record 19 games.

The 2001 and 2010 Big Ten Coach of the Year, Walker has also been honored as the Big Ten tournament's outstanding coach (2002). Ohio State has advanced to play in four Big Ten tournament championship games (1998, 2002-04-07) under Walker, winning the championship in 2002 and again in 2004.

Walker has guided Ohio State to the NCAA tournament seven times: 2002, 2003, 2004, 2007, 2009, 2010 and 2011. The 2004 team advanced to the national quarterfinals at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium with NCAA wins over Bowling Green, Detroit and Tennessee before a 1-0 loss to UCLA ended the 19-4-3 campaign. The Scarlet and Gray shattered numerous program standards that year, including most goals (62), assists (63), shutouts (13) and goals-against average of 0.67. The season included a nine-match win streak and a 13-game unbeaten run. The team was 15-1-1 at home.

In 2007, Ohio State won its first 10 games at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium to establish another program first before finishing 10-2 at home, a record that included wins over NCAA tournament teams San Diego, Pepperdine, Illinois and Indiana. The team advanced to the Big Ten tournament championship game with a win over Indiana and a penalty-kick shootout decision over Penn State. The season was highlighted by an invitation to the NCAA tournament.

In 2008, Ohio State won six consecutive matches to position it for its 13th Big Ten tournament appearance. The team qualified for the tournament with the help of a stunning, 1-0, win at Penn State that snapped the Nittany Lions' 67-game Big Ten unbeaten streak at Jeffrey Field and dating to 1995.

The Buckeyes finished second in the Big Ten Conference for their best finish ever and reached their fifth NCAA tournament in 2009 while Walker was named NSCAA Great Lakes Region Coach of the Year. Their 14-3-2 regular season record marked the best in school history. The seven wins Ohio State posted in Big Ten play were a program best and the four total losses tied for the fewest in school history. The Buckeyes gave up just 13 goals, four fewer than any other season and were 4-0-1 against ranked opponents.

In 2010, Walker led the Buckeyes to the first Big Ten championship and College Cup in program history en route to Big Ten Coach of the Year honors. The Buckeyes knocked off St. Francis (Pa.) in overtime in the first round, advanced on penalty kicks against Dayton in the second round and defeated Virginia and Georgetown to advance to the NCAA semifinals before falling to eventual national champion Notre Dame. The Scarlet and Gray finished the season with a 17-5-2 record, tallying the second-most wins in school history, and ranked fourth in the final NSCAA rankings, another program best.

Last season, Walker guided the Buckeyes to their second consecutive NCAA Sweet 16 appearance after posting a 12-9-2 record, including NCAA upsets of Tennessee and No. 15 Milwaukee. The trip to the NCAA tournament marked Ohio State's fourth appearance in the last five seasons.

Prior to taking over at Ohio State for the 1997 season, Walker spent two seasons at Kansas, where she started the program and compiled a 13-23-1 record in two seasons coaching a team of predominantly freshmen and sophomores. MD, KU, Ohio State and ODP

Walker's coaching career began at the University of Maryland in 1992 under former U.S. Women's National Team head coach April Heinrichs. In three years at Maryland, the team's goalkeepers and defense, coached by Walker, set records for save percentage, saves, fewest goals allowed and goals-against average. Active in the development of youth soccer, Walker has served as a Region II Staff Coach for the U.S. Soccer Federation Olympic Development Program since the summer of 1996. At Maryland, she served three years as a club coach in the town of Columbia, Md., as well as a head coach for the Maryland State Youth Soccer Association ODP.

Walker is a 1994 graduate of North Carolina. She was a member of three Tar Heel national championship teams, three ACC championship teams and lost only one match in her four-year collegiate career. She was the starting goalkeeper in 1989 and ended her playing career in 1991 with a career goals-against average of 0.41, allowing only 10 goals in 2,206 minutes of play. Walker holds a share of the NCAA tournament record with an amazing 0.00 GAA. She also excelled in the classroom and was named to the ACC academic honor roll three times. Walker holds an "A" license and a National Youth License from the U.S. Soccer Federation, as well as a Premier diploma from the NSCAA. She is an active member of the NSCAA and former member of the NSCAA Women's Committee.

A native of Albany, N.Y., Walker was a high school All-American at Guilderland Central High School. She earned letters in soccer, basketball and volleyball. Her hobbies include snow skiing, learning to play the guitar, horseback riding, mountain biking, rollerblading and sailing.
