CONTACTING OHIO STATE SOCCER

Prospective student-athletes who are at least a junior in high school interested in contacting Ohio State coaches should call (614) 292-8482 or email osuwomensoccer@osu.edu.

STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

Members of the media wishing to conduct interviews with any member of the Ohio State soccer team should contact Brett Rybak to arrange the appointment. Please call at least one day in advance to allow setup time.

PRACTICE/TRAINING

The Buckeyes train at 9 a.m. during the season. All training sessions take place on the practice field west of Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium across Fred Taylor Drive.

GAME DAY MEDIA SERVICES

Game notes and starting lineups will be made available to the media prior to each game. Scoring summaries will be distributed to the media following the game.

THE "JESSE" IS WIRED

The Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium has wi-fi internet access as well as courtesy phones should visiting SIDs or members of the media wish to broadcast games or file stories online from the pressbox.

Media seeking still photography or video should contact Brett Rybak.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

Postgame interviews will begin approximately 10 minutes after the match ends. Players and coaches will be available on the field in front of the Ohio State bench. A member of the Athletics Communications office will escort media to the field.

OHIOSTATEBUCKEYES.COM

This is the official Web site of the Ohio State Department of Athletics. Ohio State soccer releases, as well as a wide variety of related soccer and athletics department information can be found on the web, including links to all 36 varsity sports.

LORI WALKER HEAD COACH, 19TH SEASON

Student-athletes who choose to pursue their soccer careers at Ohio State University are instructed, mentored and cared for by an innovative and expert coaching staff led by North Carolina graduate and Big Ten Coach of the Year Lori Walker. Now in her 19th year on the Columbus campus, Walker and her staff have led the Buckeyes to nine NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 13 years, most recently in 2013 when Ohio State advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth-consecutive season.

Walker surrounds Ohio State's student-athletes with creative teachers that include Chris McLain, an associate head coach and recruiting coordinator in his first season in Columbus after 11 years at Colgate, and Nick Flohre, an assistant in his second season after spending two at Iowa. The staff instructs through a blend of team and character-building exercises and individual skill development that creates a perfect chemistry for winning games and reaching goals.

Credit Walker for assembling such a terrific staff and for allowing her assistants the freedom to coach, to lead and to experiment. That's what experience as a coach will allow and Walker's experience, soccer knowledge and ability to build skills extend way beyond the impressive Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium and the lovely Ohio State campus. Wins, championships and NCAA's.

Walker has 20 years of experience as a Division I head coach with two years as head coach at the University of Kansas- she was the first coach in KU history- preceding her 18 completed seasons at Ohio State. Walker has a 215-164-35 record as a head coach, including a 202-141-34 record at Ohio State. She has guided 12 teams to 10-or-more-wins seasons and has coached four teams that set single season wins records, including the 2004 Ohio State team that won a school record 19 games.

The 2001 and 2010 Big Ten Coach of the Year, Walker has also been honored as the Big Ten Tournament's outstanding coach (2002) and NSCAA Great Lakes Region Coach of the Year (2009). Ohio State has advanced to play in five Big Ten Tournament championship games (1998, 2002, '04, '07, '12) under Walker, winning the championship in 2002, 2004 and again in 2012.

Walker has guided Ohio State to the NCAA Tournament nine times: 2002, 2003, 2004, 2007, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013. The 2004 team advanced to the national quarterfinals at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium with NCAA wins over Bowling Green, Detroit and Tennessee before a 1-0 loss to UCLA ended the 19-4-3 campaign. The Scarlet and Gray shattered numerous program standards that year, including most goals (62), assists (63), shutouts (13) and goals-against average of 0.67. The season included a nine-match win streak and a 13-game unbeaten run. The team was 15-1-1 at home.

In 2007, Ohio State won its first 10 games at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium to establish another program first before finishing 10-2 at home, a record that included wins over NCAA Tournament teams San Diego, Pepperdine, Illinois and Indiana. The team advanced to the Big Ten Tournament championship game with a win over Indiana and a penalty-kick shootout decision over Penn State. The season was highlighted by an invitation to the NCAA Tournament.

In 2008, Ohio State won six consecutive matches to position it for its 13th Big Ten Tournament appearance. The team qualified for the tournament with the help of a stunning, 1-0, win at Penn State that snapped the Nittany Lions' 67-game Big Ten unbeaten streak at Jeffrey Field and dating to 1995.

The Buckeyes finished second in the Big Ten Conference for their best finish ever and reached their fifth NCAA Tournament in 2009 while Walker was named NSCAA Great Lakes Region Coach of the Year. Their 14-3-2 regular season record marked the best in school history. The seven wins Ohio State posted in Big Ten play were a program best and the four total losses tied for the fewest in school history. The Buckeyes gave up just 13 goals, four fewer than any other season and were 4-0-1 against ranked opponents.

In 2010, Walker led the Buckeyes to the first Big Ten championship and College Cup in program history en route to Big Ten Coach of the Year honors. The Buckeyes knocked off St. Francis (Pa.) in overtime in the first round, advanced on penalty kicks against Dayton in the second round and defeated Virginia and Georgetown to advance to the NCAA semifinals before falling to eventual national champion Notre Dame. The Scarlet and Gray finished the season with a 17-5-2 record, tallying the second-most wins in school history, and ranked fourth in the final NSCAA rankings, another program best.

Walker guided the Buckeyes to their second consecutive NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2011 after posting a 12-9-2 record, including NCAA upsets of Tennessee and No. 15 Milwaukee. The trip to the NCAA Tournament marked Ohio State's fourth appearance in the last five seasons.

In 2012, the Buckeyes posted a 16-4-2 record en route to a fourth-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. Ohio State got hot down the stretch, tying a program record with nine-straight wins in October and November which included the Buckeyes' third Big Ten Tournament championship with a 2-1 victory over Illinois.

Ohio State went 10-7-3 in 2013, making the NCAA Tournament for a fifth-consecutive season. Megan Fuller and Nichelle Prince were named second team All-Big Ten while Prince, and Alexis Degler were named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team.

Prior to taking over at Ohio State for the 1997 season, Walker spent two seasons at Kansas, where she started the program and compiled a 13-23-1 record in two seasons coaching a team of predominantly freshmen and sophomores.

Walker's coaching career began at the University of Maryland in 1992 under former U.S. Women's National Team head coach April Heinrichs. In three years at Maryland, the team's goalkeepers and defense, coached by Walker, set records for save percentage, saves, fewest goals allowed and goals-against average. Active in the development of youth soccer, Walker has served as a Region II Staff Coach for the U.S. Soccer Federation Olympic Development Program since the summer of 1996. At Maryland, she served three years as a club coach in the town of Columbia, Md., as well as a head coach for the Maryland State Youth Soccer Association ODP.

Walker is a 1994 graduate of North Carolina. She was a member of four Tar Heel national championship teams, three ACC championship teams and lost only one match in her four-year collegiate career. She was the starting goalkeeper in 1989 and ended her playing career in 1991 with a career goals-against average of 0.41, allowing only 10 goals in 2,206 minutes of play. Walker holds a share of the NCAA tournament record with an amazing 0.00 GAA. She also excelled in the classroom and was named to the ACC academic honor roll three times.

Walker holds an "A" license and a National Youth License from the U.S. Soccer Federation, as well as a Premier diploma from the NSCAA. She is an active member of the NSCAA and former member of the NSCAA Women's Committee.

A native of Albany, N.Y., Walker was a high school All-American at Guilderland Central High School. She earned letters in soccer, basketball and volleyball. Her hobbies include snow skiing, learning to play the guitar, horseback riding, mountain biking, rollerblading and sailing.

CHRIS MCLAIN
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH & RECRUITING COORDINATOR
 FIRST SEASON

Coaching veteran Chris McLain enters his first season as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at Ohio State after spending 11 seasons as associate head coach at Colgate.

In his time on head coach Kathy Brawn's staff at Colgate, the Raiders recorded more than 100 wins and earned five Patriot League regular season championships, three Patriot League tournament titles. In addition, McLain helped guide the Raiders to three berths in the NCAA Tournament.

McLain helped recruit three Patriot League Offensive Players of the year, one Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year, three conference tournament Most Valuable Players and six Patriot League Freshmen of the Year.

"I am thrilled to add Chris to our staff as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator," head coach Lori Walker said. "After spending quality time with Chris and his wife, Claire, my decision was a no brainer! Chris is a classy, seasoned professional who has shown a deep level of loyalty and commitment to Colgate for 11 years. His high standards, integrity, personal character and values match our program perfectly. Chris has proven success recruiting the most talented on the field and in the classroom. He has been an integral part of the winning tradition at Colgate and I look forward to blending his on field talents with the rest of my staff. Chris' enthusiasm to step up to this new challenge as a Buckeye is infectious."

In his first seasons at Colgate in 2004, McLain helped the Raiders to a 13-7-2 record, Patriot League regular season and tournament championships a win over No. 17 and Pac-10 champion Arizona in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, marking the first tournament win in Patriot League and program history. The Raiders went on to win Patriot League regular season championships again in 2005, 2009 and 2011 along with Patriot League tournament championships in 2009 and 2012. In all, the Colgate compiled a 118-77-20 record with McLain on the staff.

In addition to his duties at Colgate, McLain has been a strong promoter of youth soccer and has been active in the Olympic Development Program. He has served stints on the Antigua National Team staff in 2012 and the U-18 U.S. National Team staff in 2008.

Before his time at Colgate, McLain served two seasons as head coach of the women's soccer team at his alma mater, Eastern Nazarene. McLain, who has a bachelor's degree in general sciences, holds an Advanced National Diploma from the National Soccer Coaching Association of America (NSCAA) and a U.S. Soccer Federation "A" Coaching License.

McLain and his wife, Claire, are parents of three children: Maeghan, Gavin and Caitlin.

DUNCAN JOHNSTON
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Duncan Johnston is in his first season as director of operations for the Buckeyes. Johnston coordinates game operations at home and on the road, organizes team travel and serves as a director for summer camps and clinics.

The St. Louis, Mo., native graduated with a business administration degree in May 2015 from Ohio Dominican University, where he played soccer for four years. Johnston has spent time interning with the Ohio State camps office, Ohio High School Athletic Association and as a player development intern with the Columbus Crew.

NICK FLOHRE
ASSISTANT COACH
 SECOND SEASON

Nick Flohre, a native of Dayton, Ohio, is in his second season as an assistant coach after spending two years at Iowa as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator.

"Nick brings great energy, enthusiasm, and knowledge of Big Ten women's soccer to our coaching staff," head coach Lori Walker said. "He was instrumental in moving Iowa's team forward to one of their most successful seasons in the last decade including two wins against Penn State in 2013. As a former competitor, he has scouted and recruited against Ohio State in an effort to exploit our weaknesses and I welcome his unique perspective of our program. Nick was born a Buckeye and there is no greater salesman than someone who has grown up as part of Buckeye Nation. I am thrilled Nick is back home."

In Flohre's two seasons in Iowa City, the Hawkeyes went 27-13-4, including a school-record 15 victories, in 2013. Iowa advanced to the Big Ten Tournament championship in 2013 while tallying the first two postseason wins in program history along with the first NCAA Tournament appearance in the history of Iowa women's soccer.

Flohre was the girls' assistant director of Ohio Elite Soccer Academy from 2008-12. In that time, he helped the U-13 Ohio Elite team to the 2012 U.S. Club National Cup finals and the U-12 team to the 2009 OSYSA State Cup championship.

A 2003 graduate of the University of Indianapolis where he competed on the men's soccer team, Flohre served as an assistant on the Wesleyan University men's team in from 2006-07 and the Tulane women's team in 2004-05. Flohre has a USSF 'B' coaching license.

JENNA RICHMOND
VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

Jenna Richmond is in her first season as volunteer assistant coach at Ohio State. A four-year letterwinner and two-time team captain at UCLA, Richmond comes to Columbus after playing the 2014 season for FC Kansas City of the NWSL.

The Centreville, Va., native was named NSCAA first team All-Pacific Region and a first team NSCAA Scholar All-American in her senior season of 2013, when she helped guide the Bruins to an NCAA championship. Richmond, who graduated from UCLA in 2013 with a degree in sociology, finished her career with 90 starts to rank seventh all-time at UCLA.
