CONTACTING OHIO STATE SOCCER

Prospective student-athletes who are at least a junior in high school interested in contacting Ohio State coaches should call (614) 292-8482 or email osuwomensoccer@osu.edu.

STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

Members of the media wishing to conduct interviews with any member of the Ohio State soccer team should contact Brett Rybak to arrange the appointment. Please call at least one day in advance to allow setup time.

PRACTICE/TRAINING

The Buckeyes train at 9 a.m. during the season. All training sessions take place on the practice field west of Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium across Fred Taylor Drive.

GAME DAY MEDIA SERVICES

Game notes and starting lineups will be made available to the media prior to each game. Scoring summaries will be distributed to the media following the game.

THE "JESSE" IS WIRED

The Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium has wi-fi internet access as well as courtesy phones should visiting SIDs or members of the media wish to broadcast games or file stories online from the pressbox.

Media seeking still photography or video should contact Brett Rybak.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

Postgame interviews will begin approximately 10 minutes after the match ends. Players and coaches will be available on the field in front of the Ohio State bench. A member of the Athletics Communications office will escort media to the field.

OHIOSTATEBUCKEYES.COM

This is the official Web site of the Ohio State Department of Athletics. Ohio State soccer releases, as well as a wide variety of related soccer and athletics department information can be found on the web, including links to all 36 varsity sports.

LORI WALKER HEAD COACH, 20TH SEASON

Entering her 20th season at the helm of Ohio State women's soccer, head coach Lori Walker has established that Ohio State will contend in the Big Ten and nationally on an annual basis. The North Carolina graduate and two-time Big Ten Coach of the Year has led the Buckeyes to 10 NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 14 years, most recently in 2015 when Ohio State advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the third time in the last six seasons.

Walker surrounds Ohio State's student-athletes with creative teachers that include Chris McLain, an associate head coach and recruiting coordinator in his second season in Columbus after 11 years at Colgate, and Daniel Clitnovici, an assistant in his first season after spending the 2015 season with the Western New York Flash of the National Women's Soccer League.

Walker has 21 years of experience as a Division I head coach with two years as head coach at the University of Kansas- she was the first coach in KU history- preceding her 19 completed seasons at Ohio State. Walker has a 228-171-38 record as a head coach, including a 215-148-37 record at Ohio State. She has guided 13 teams to 10-or-more-wins seasons and has coached four teams that set single season wins records, including the 2004 Ohio State team that won a school record 19 games.

The 2001 and 2010 Big Ten Coach of the Year, Walker has also been honored as the Big Ten Tournament's outstanding coach (2002) and NSCAA Great Lakes Region Coach of the Year (2009). Ohio State has advanced to play in five Big Ten Tournament championship games (1998, 2002, '04, '07, '12) under Walker, winning the championship in 2002, 2004 and again in 2012.

Walker has guided Ohio State to the NCAA Tournament 10 times: 2002, 2003, 2004, 2007, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2015. The 2004 team advanced to the national quarterfinals at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium with NCAA wins over Bowling Green, Detroit and Tennessee before a 1-0 loss to UCLA ended the 19-4-3 campaign. The Scarlet and Gray shattered numerous program standards that year, including most goals (62), assists (63), shutouts (13) and goals-against average of 0.67. The season included a nine-match win streak and a 13-game unbeaten run. The team was 15-1-1 at home.

In 2007, Ohio State won its first 10 games at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium to establish another program first before finishing 10-2 at home, a record that included wins over NCAA Tournament teams San Diego, Pepperdine, Illinois and Indiana. The team advanced to the Big Ten Tournament championship game with a win over Indiana and a penalty-kick shootout decision over Penn State. The season was highlighted by an invitation to the NCAA Tournament.

In 2008, Ohio State won six consecutive matches to position it for its 13th Big Ten Tournament appearance. The team qualified for the tournament with the help of a stunning, 1-0, win at Penn State that snapped the Nittany Lions' 67-game Big Ten unbeaten streak at Jeffrey Field and dating to 1995.

The Buckeyes finished second in the Big Ten Conference for their best finish ever and reached their fifth NCAA Tournament in 2009 while Walker was named NSCAA Great Lakes Region Coach of the Year. Their 14-3-2 regular season record marked the best in school history. The seven wins Ohio State posted in Big Ten play were a program best and the four total losses tied for the fewest in school history. The Buckeyes gave up just 13 goals, four fewer than any other season and were 4-0-1 against ranked opponents.

In 2010, Walker led the Buckeyes to the first Big Ten championship and College Cup in program history en route to Big Ten Coach of the Year honors. The Buckeyes knocked off St. Francis (Pa.) in overtime in the first round, advanced on penalty kicks against Dayton in the second round and defeated Virginia and Georgetown to advance to the NCAA semifinals before falling to eventual national champion Notre Dame. The Scarlet and Gray finished the season with a 17-5-2 record, tallying the second-most wins in school history, and ranked fourth in the final NSCAA rankings, another program best.

Walker guided the Buckeyes to their second consecutive NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2011 after posting a 12-9-2 record, including NCAA upsets of Tennessee and No. 15 Milwaukee. The trip to the NCAA Tournament marked Ohio State's fourth appearance in the last five seasons.

In 2012, the Buckeyes posted a 16-4-2 record en route to a fourth-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. Ohio State got hot down the stretch, tying a program record with nine-straight wins in October and November which included the Buckeyes' third Big Ten Tournament championship with a 2-1 victory over Illinois.

Ohio State went 10-7-3 in 2013, making the NCAA Tournament for a fifth-consecutive season. Megan Fuller and Nichelle Prince were named second team All-Big Ten while Prince, and Alexis Degler were named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team.

In 2015, the Buckeyes advanced to their third NCAA Sweet 16 in the last six seasons, tallying a 13-7-3 record, 5-4-2 in conference play. Devon Kerr and Sarah Roberts were named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team while Lindsay Agnew garnered All-Big Ten Tournament team laurels.

In addition to the on-field success, Walker's Buckeyes have thrived in the classroom. As a team, Ohio State has earned the NSCAA College Women's Team Academic Award seven times in the past eight years. To qualify for the award, a team must have a minimum grade point average of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale) to be eligible. Individually, 27 different student-athletes have garnered Big Ten Conference Distinguished Scholar laurels during Walker's tenure to go along 12 CoSIDA Academic All-District honors.

Prior to taking over at Ohio State for the 1997 season, Walker spent two seasons at Kansas, where she started the program and compiled a 13-23-1 record in two seasons coaching a team of predominantly freshmen and sophomores.

Walker's coaching career began at the University of Maryland in 1992 under former U.S. Women's National Team head coach April Heinrichs. In three years at Maryland, the team's goalkeepers and defense, coached by Walker, set records for save percentage, saves, fewest goals allowed and goals-against average. Active in the development of youth soccer, Walker has served as a Region II Staff Coach for the U.S. Soccer Federation Olympic Development Program since the summer of 1996. At Maryland, she served three years as a club coach in the town of Columbia, Md., as well as a head coach for the Maryland State Youth Soccer Association ODP.

Walker is a 1994 graduate of North Carolina. She was a member of four Tar Heel national championship teams, three ACC championship teams and lost only one match in her four-year collegiate career. She was the starting goalkeeper in 1989 and ended her playing career in 1991 with a career goals-against average of 0.41, allowing only 10 goals in 2,206 minutes of play. Walker holds a share of the NCAA tournament record with an amazing 0.00 GAA. She also excelled in the classroom and was named to the ACC academic honor roll three times.

Walker holds an "A" license and a National Youth License from the U.S. Soccer Federation, as well as a Premier diploma from the NSCAA. She is an active member of the NSCAA and former member of the NSCAA Women's Committee.

A native of Albany, N.Y., Walker was a high school All-American at Guilderland Central High School. She earned letters in soccer, basketball and volleyball. Her hobbies cycling, paddle boarding and boating.

CHRIS MCLAIN
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH & RECRUITING COORDINATOR
 SECOND SEASON

Coaching veteran Chris McLain enters his second season as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at Ohio State after spending 11 seasons as associate head coach at Colgate.

McLain immediately had an impact in his first season as an assistant in Columbus, helping the Buckeyes to an NCAA-best seven-win improvement in 2015 as the team went 13-7-3 and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. Ohio State finished the season ranked 21st in the RPI and knocked off SEC champion Florida and ACC powerhouse Virginia Tech, a pair of Top 15 RPI teams. Devon Kerr and Sarah Roberts were named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team while Michela Paradiso and Nichelle Prince were both named third team All-Great Lakes Region.

In his time on head coach Kathy Brawn's staff at Colgate, McLain helped guide the Raiders to more than 100 wins, five Patriot League regular season championships and three Patriot League tournament titles. In addition, McLain helped lead the Raiders to three berths in the NCAA Tournament.

McLain recruited three Patriot League Offensive Players of the year, one Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year, three conference tournament Most Valuable Players and six Patriot League Freshmen of the Year.

The soccer program at Colgate reached heights previously unseen at the Patriot League school during McLain's 11 years. In his first season at Colgate in 2004, McLain helped the Raiders to a 13-7-2 record, Patriot League regular season and tournament championships and a win over No. 17 and Pac-10 champion Arizona in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, marking the first tournament win in Patriot League and program history. The Raiders went on to win Patriot League regular season championships again in 2005, 2009 and 2011 along with Patriot League tournament championships in 2009 and 2012. In all, Colgate compiled a 118-77-20 record with McLain on the staff.

In addition to his duties at Colgate, McLain has been a strong promoter of youth soccer and has been active in the Olympic Development Program. He has served stints on the Antigua National Team staff in 2012 and the U-18 U.S. National Team staff in 2008.

Before his time at Colgate, McLain served two seasons as head coach of the women's soccer team at his alma mater, Eastern Nazarene. McLain, who has a bachelor's degree in general sciences, holds an Advanced National Diploma from the National Soccer Coaching Association of America (NSCAA) and a U.S. Soccer Federation "A" Coaching License.

McLain and his wife, Claire, are parents of three children: Maeghan, Gavin and Caitlin.

DANIEL CLITNOVICI
ASSISTANT COACH
 FIRST SEASON

Daniel Clitnovici is entering his first season as an assistant coach at Ohio State in 2016. Clitnovici previously spent the 2015 season as an assistant coach with the Western New York Flash of the National Women's Soccer League.

Clitnovici brings more than 15 years of coaching experience with him to Columbus. He began his coaching career as head coach of the Colorado Rapids W-League Women, tallying a 25-10-3 record. During that time, he also was head coach of the Rapids' U-20 girls, leading them to the 2012 USL U-20 national championship.

In 2014, Clitnovici was head coach of the Colorado Pride Women, where he led the team to a Western Conference championship game appearance while earning 2014 USL W-League Coach of the Year laurels. Last year, Clitnovici served as the main assistant with the Western New York Flash while leading the Flash's Academy as Director of Coaching.

Before getting in to coaching, Clitnovici spent 10 years playing professional, including time with Gold Coast United FC in Australia, Universitatea Craiova in Romania, Barnsley FC in England and Apollon Athinon in Greece. In his final professional season in 2008-09, Clitnovici played in Spain for Elche CF and CF Illicitano.

Clitnovici holds a US Soccer Federation "A" License, NSCAA Advanced National License, NSCAA Advanced National GK License, NSCAA Director of Coaching License, FFA National Youth License, FFA Goal Keeping Level 1 License and an FFA Grass Roots Diploma.

KATY DOLESH
VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH
 FIRST SEASON

Katy Dolesh is in her first season as a volunteer assistant coach at Ohio State. A four-year starter and letterwinner at Miami University, Dolesh was a three-time first-team All-MAC selection and a two-time NSCAA All-Great Lakes Region selection.

The Chardon, Ohio, native and team captain as a senior in 2013 played in 81 career matches for the RedHawks, scoring 31 career goals to go along with 16 assists. Dolesh graduated with a degree in health promotion in 2014 before earning a master's degree in sports psychology in 2015.

DUNCAN JOHNSTON
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Duncan Johnston is in his second season as director of operations for the Buckeyes. Johnston coordinates game operations at home and on the road, organizes team travel and serves as a director for summer camps and clinics.

The St. Louis, Mo., native graduated with a business administration degree in May 2015 from Ohio Dominican University, where he played soccer for four years. Johnston has spent time interning with the Ohio State camps office, Ohio High School Athletic Association and as a player development intern with the Columbus Crew.
