END OF THE GAME

FINAL SCORE: OHIO STATE 30, WISCONSIN 20
MADISON, Wis. — Ohio State's defenses sagged badly again in the second half, but the Buckeyes hung on to gain a 30-20 Big Ten football victory over Wisconsin here Saturday.

Camp Randall Stadium's largest crowd, 79,759, screamed to the final seconds when a dropped pass deflected in the league and saw its season dropped to 2-4.

THE GAME'S FIRST touchdown came when Scott Erdman intercepted a Gerald pass at midfield with just two minutes gone in the first period.

Wisconsin needed eight plays to move 47 yards with sub-halfback Ron Pallaro going in for the score from the one. Vince Lamia's conversion attempt was good.

When a fumbled snap from center fouled up a 45-yard field goal attempt by the Badgers' Lamia, Ohio State marched 33 yards in nine plays for its first score. Gerald danced through the line for the final 12 yards. Skladany's kick was good and the score was tied at 7.

KEY PLAY IN the drive was a 23-yard burst by Jeff Logan, who was the Buckeyes' leading rusher with 113 yards in 19 carries.

The Buckeyes also scored on their next possession. Ray Griffin returned a Wisconsin punt to the Ohio State 43. Gerald, Johnson and Logan alternated on the 13-play drive with Johnson scoring from the two. Again Skladany's kick was good and the Bucks went up 14-7.

Freshman Mike Guess intercepted a Carroll pass on the Wisconsin 49 and picked up 22 yards before he was run out of bounds on the Badger 30.

JOHNSON AND LOGAN bruised the Badger defense and Johnson scored his 50th Big Ten touchdown from the two yard line. Skladany's kick was wide left and Ohio State led 20-7.

Wisconsin took the kickoff close enough for Lamia to try a 48-yard field goal which fell short. Skladany's 27-yard field goal attempt was blocked minutes into the fourth period. However, Wisconsin failed on its next series and Ohio State took over at midfield.

THE FINAL OSU points came on Skladany's talented toe. Sub fullback Paul Campbell stormed through the middle of the line 33 yards to the Badger 17. The Badgers stashed at the 8 yard line and Skladany's 25-yard kick was perfect and Ohio State appeared to have the situation in hand, 30-14.

But the Badgers came back behind Carroll's arm and used only eight plays for the final score. Carroll found fullback Joe Rodríguez in the end zone on a 13-yard pitch. A pass for the two-point conversion failed and the Buck's lead was cut to 10.

It stayed there, but barely so. Lamia's onside kick was recovered by Badger Tim McConnell on the Buckeye 49. Carroll fired twice before he hit Randy Rose on the Buckeye 24. After a miss, Carroll found Rose at the 9 with five seconds left. The final pass for Charles, slipped off his fingers as the game ended.

After two weeks on the road, the Bucks celebrate Homecoming next Saturday against Purdue.

MADISON, Wis. — Woody Hayes liked the offense, liked the fact a record Camp Randall Stadium crowd watched the game and especially liked the fact his Ohio State football team notched its third Big Ten victory.

And the 63-year-old winner of 184 games in 26 Scarlet and Gray years made it clear he "despises" negative thinkers.

"BY AND LARGE, this was our best offensive game," he said after Saturday's 30-20 success against Wisconsin. "We got more things done, under some pretty severe handicaps.

"We lost both our tight ends coming into the game," he said, also reminding that fullback Pete Johnson and tail back Jeff Logan had been forced out in the second half and that center Doug Porter (who snaps the ball on punts and placekicks) had suffered torn knee ligaments and would be lost for two weeks.

Porter's specialist duties fell to sophomore guard Tommy Waugh. "It was a last-minute decision to bring him along," Hayes said, "and it was the best decision we made. He did a pretty good job."

JOHNSON'S AILING ankles were reinjured. "Pete's been hurt for a month," the coach pointed out. "He's been running on two bad ankles, but doing a good job."

Logan, who had another spectacu lar day (113 yards), said he "got kicked in the calf on a kickoff and it knotted up. It loosened up and I could have gone back in."

"We had a lot of young people who helped us today," Hayes said.
"I was tickled with (Bill) Jaco. Paul Campbell, a freshman, came in there and did a real good job (at fullback).
Our tailback (Ron) Springs, helped us after Jeff got hurt. If he gets more work, he'll be a good one."

JACO, A 6-5, 245-pound sophomore who switched from tackle three weeks ago, beamed over a 41-yard pass-catch.
"The first one since high school," he said. "There was nobody there."

Actually, it wasn't his first catch. He had one for eight earlier in the third period, but he'll remember the big one.

The Buckeyes ran from the I formation much of the time Saturday, after using mostly pro-set and veer offenses in the first five games.
"We wanted to get Jeff running more," Hayes said. "He's a great back, a terrific back — every game."

LOGAN, WHO OWNS 664 yards in six starts as Archie Griffin's successor, welcomed the switch. "I was glad we went back to the I," he said. "I enjoy seeing what's going on."

The I-back — which Griffin was most of his career — has latitude when he takes the ball, because he has an option of hitting anywhere between the two ends, wherever the hole might be.

Logan and quarterback Rod Gerald each came up with spectacular, but totally unplanned plays.

With a fourth and four on the Wisconsin 19 and the game tied at 7-7, Hayes sent in Tom Skladany to attempt a field goal.

"THE SNAP WAS A little high and outside," Logan explained, "so instead of fighting it, I took off. We didn't have far to go (for a first down)."

He got five yards and two plays later, Johnson scored.

The quick-footed Gerald put Ohio ahead by 27-7 in the third quarter with a 29-yard run, after what was to have been a handoff to Logan.

"The ball slipped out of my hands," explained Gerald, then with a laugh, added, "I had to do something — after that fumble."

Hayes considered a field goal by Skladany for a 30-14 lead the clincher.
"We felt that would put it away," he said.

A local writer touched the only nerve of the post-game interview, reporting that "critics say this isn't a typical Ohio State team."

"I don't give a damn what the critics say," Hayes blazed. "I'm so sick and tired of negative thinkers. The older I get, the more I despise negators. Don't say 'hate.' But I despise them. I put myself in the positive category."
