

Cross Country

The men's and women's cross-country teams completed another solid season in 2001. The men took fifth at the Big Ten championships and finished eighth out of 31 teams at the 2001 District IV Regional Championships. J.J. O'Reilly capped off an outstanding Ohio State career by finishing eighth at the Big Ten championships, 11th at regionals and 67th at the NCAA championships. He also was named to the Second Team All-Big Ten. The men's team ended the season with a record of 71-38. The women's team finished the season 38-30 and 10th in the Big Ten. Strong outings included the 2001 All-Ohio Championships where the Buckeyes finished fourth out of 35 teams. Sophomore Jennifer Ordway continued to establish herself as an athlete and a leader as she attended the prestigious sixth annual NCAA Foundation Leadership Conference.

2001 Record Men – 71-38 overall, 5-4 Big Ten; Women – 38-30 overall, 1-10 Big Ten
 Head Coach – Robert Gary (Men's Coach), fifth year (Ohio State, '96); Matt Sparks (Women's Coach), second year (Indiana, '97)
