

MEN'S LACROSSE

The Ohio State men's lacrosse team was among the nation's elite in 2008, reaching the NCAA quarterfinals for the first time in program history and ending the season ranked seventh.

The Buckeyes returned to the NCAA tournament for the third time in the last six years. In the first round, the squad traveled to face No. 8-seed Cornell on its home field, jumping out to an 11-2 halftime lead en route to the first NCAA tournament win in program history. Ohio State returned to Ithaca the following weekend for the quarterfinals to take on top-seed Duke, who eliminated the Buckeyes from the tourney.

The team shared the Great Western Lacrosse League title with a 4-1 ledger and was the runner-up in the inaugural league tournament. Kevin Buchanan earned GWLL Player of the Year honors, the fourth Buckeye to earn the honor in program history. Three other Buckeyes joined Buchanan on the all-conference first team - Joel Dalgarno, Peet Poillon and Scott Matthews. Another four Buckeyes - James Green, Keith Lovett, Ricky Pages and Stefan Schroder - were named All-GWLL second team, giving the Buckeyes a league-best eight total honorees. Buchanan ended his career as a three-time first-team all-conference selection, the third in Buckeye history. Pages earned All-GWLL honors each of his last three seasons with the squad.

Led by second-team selection Buchanan, four Buckeyes earned USILA All-America honors for 2008. Schroder, Dalgarno and Poillon were honorable mention selections, as the squad had the most All-Americans since three were honored in both 2003 and '04. Buchanan was the first Buckeye named to the second team since Greg Bice in 2004 and just the fourth Buckeye to earn USILA All-America first, second or third team honors in program history.

Buchanan was drafted fifth overall in the Major League Lacrosse Collegiate Draft, the highest selection in Buckeye history. He ended his career second all-time in scoring at Ohio State with 175 points, fourth in OSU history with 78 career assists and ninth with 97 career goals. He wrapped up his career on a 46-game point streak, including a 26-game goal-scoring streak.

Highlighting the season was the team's record-setting game against Denver in Ohio Stadium. The Buckeyes and Pioneers met prior to the football team's spring game in front of 29,601 fans, setting men's lacrosse records for regular-season (20,180 March 3, 2007 in Baltimore) and on-campus (19,850 April 18, 1987 in College Park, Md.) games.
