HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

VANESSA IMMORDINO

Class of 2009. Played 2000-03.

Three-time All-American Vanessa Immordino finished her career in the Top 5 in the Buckeye record books in career points (127), career goals (52) and single-season points with 54 as a senior. She also was a three-time First Team All-Big Ten selection and a three-time First Team West Region All-American, as well as a 2003 Finalist for the Women's National Field Hockey Player of the Year award. A four-time Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week, Immordino was captain of the Buckeyes as a senior. She ended her career as one of five Ohio State players to record 100 career points after leading the team in goals three seasons.

BRITTA EICKHOFF

Class of 2003. Played 1994-97.

Britta Eickhoff sits at No. 2 in the Ohio State career record book with 170 points from 78 goals and 14 assists, sitting only behind Buckeye legend Sue Marcellus. In 1997, Eickhoff earned First Team America honors, becoming the first Buckeye to earn the highest selection since Marcellus last received the honor in 1979. A second-team All-American in 1996 as well, Eickhoff led the Buckeyes in scoring her junior and senior season, posting 67 points (30 goals, 7 assists) in 1996 and 49 points (23 goals 4 assists) in 1997. The two-time First Team All-West Region honoree owns three Top 10 Ohio State single season points record, including the third-best Buckeye single season effort coming in 1996 (67 points).

SUE MARCELLUS

Class of 1996. Played 1976-79.

Regarded as Ohio State's best field hockey player, Sue Marcellus is the only athlete in the program to have her number retired. While at OSU, she was the all-time leader in career goals (117), career points (254) and single-season points (82), earning All-America honors in 1977, 1978 and 1979. She was a member of the US National Team from 1977 to 1980 and member of the 1980 US Olympic Team.

E. TEMPLE MESSER-BACKER

Class of 1997. Attended Ohio State 1921-26.

(Also lettered in softball)

Although varsity sports didn't exist for women in the 1920s, E. Temple Messer-Baker participated in track and field, baseball, soccer and field hockey while a student at Ohio State. In 1925, she competed in the first women's intercollegiate track meet held in Ohio Stadium. After graduating with a degree in education, she went on to serve as a player, teacher and coach. She played on the American Field Hockey team, coached boys basketball and served as president of the Elk's Ladies Golf Association.

BARBARA WETTERS-BLOSSER

Class of 1993. Attended Ohio State 1971-75. (Also lettered in basketball and tennis)

Three-sport star Barbara Wetters-Blosser competed in three national championship events in one year. A four-time Big Ten doubles champion, she was named to the 1971 Midwest Collegiate All-Star Field Hockey team. She also was captain of the basketball team as a freshman and sophomore. After leaving Ohio State, Wetters-Blosser served as an athletic administrator at William & Mary College.

PEGGY PALUMBO

Class of 2005. Attended Ohio State 1958-61. (Also lettered in basketball)

A pioneer for women's sports at Ohio State, Peggy Palumbo was a first-team All-Lake Erie field hockey forward, as well as the captain of the unbeaten women's basketball team in 1960-61. Palumbo, the second in her family to be inducted into the Hall of Fame, also served as the president of Ohio State Physical Education Association (1960-61). After leaving Ohio State, she spent 20 years coaching girls high school sports in Cleveland area (basketball: 1970-90; volleyball: 1974-76; track and field: 1971-77; softball: 1978-1982).

OHIO STATE CONFERENCE HISTORY

1981-1988: Ohio State competed in the Big Ten Conference; field hockey was eliminated in 1989 when Purdue eliminated the sport.

1989-1991: Ohio State competed in the Midwest Collegiate Field Hockey Conference.

1992-Present: Ohio State competes in the Big Ten Conference; field hockey was reinstated in the conference in 1992 when Penn State joined the Big Ten.
