2014 OUTLOOK

2012-13 RECAP

The Ohio State women's tennis team, under new leadership in interim head coach Melissa Schaub, recorded a 10-14 ledger in the 2012-13 season, including a trio of Big Ten victories, five shutouts and three wins over ranked opponents. The Buckeyes, who were ranked as high as No. 40 in the Campbell's/ITA National Rankings, ended the season in a four-way tie for eighth place in the Big Ten with Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

The Buckeyes must adapt to the loss of seniors Fidan Manashirova, Gabby Steele and Kara Cecil who led the squad in 2013. Steele and Manashirova capped their careers in fourth and fifth, respectively, all-time in career singles victories. Manashirova led the Buckeyes with a team-best 24 singles wins last season, including a team-high 15 wins in dual matches and eight conference wins. Steele, was named the team's Most Valuable Player, notched 23 singles wins this season and tied for a team-high 18 doubles wins in 2013 with Kelsey Dieters. Paired with Cecil, the Buckeye duo of Dieters and Cecil formed the winningest tandem with 11 wins on the season.

Under the guidance of second-year head coach Melissa Schaub, the Ohio State women's tennis team brings a balanced roster of veteran and new Buckeyes. Kelsey Becker, Noelle Malley, Grainne O'Neill and Nicole Flower will welcome a talented freshman class in Ferny Angeles Paz, Gabriella De Santis, Miho Kowase and Sandy Niehaus to the squad this season.

Senior Kelsey Becker posted a career-high 12 double victories in the 2012-13 season, including a team-high three consecutive conference doubles wins paired with O'Neill vs. Illinois, Minnesota and Northwestern. The Academic All-Big Ten selection started off the season strong collecting a team-high eight doubles decisions in the fall campaign.

Senior Noelle Malley carried the momentum from her successful fall slate into the regular season, enjoying a nine-match singles win streak from Oct. 23 to Jan. 23. In thrilling fashion, the Kansas City, Mo., native sealed the team victory against higher-ranked Penn State in a three-set triumph over Sarah Henderson on court six March 3.

Redshirt sophomore Nicole Flower notched an even 14-14 singles record and 6-7 doubles record in the spring slate. In the fall, the Upper Arlington, Ohio, native won two singles matches to qualify for a spot in the USTA/ITA Midwest Regional main draw. Playing at the No. 5 and 6 positions, she earned three victories over Big Ten opponents in straight sets against Iowa, Minnesota and Illinois.

Sophomore Grainne O'Neill, who earned the Most Improved Player Award following last season, led the squad with six doubles victories in Big Ten competition and earned a team-best 14 wins in dual doubles matches in the 2012-13 campaign. O'Neill, who hails from Blessington, Ireland, closed out the season winning four of her last six doubles matches.

The first recruiting class for Schaub will bring a new energy to the squad and will make an immediate impact on the program. Ferny Angeles Paz earned a career-high ranking of No. 50 in the junior ITF poll and was named the doubles champion at a Grade 2 ITF tournament in Argentina. Gabriella De Santis holds the No. 2 ranking in her home country of Venezuela and competed in the 2013 Fed Cup in Medellin, Colombia. Tokyo, Japan, native Miho Kowase was a member of the Japanese national team from 2009-12 and reached the doubles quarterfinals of the 2011 Wimbledon Juniors. Sandy Niehaus captured the 2010 Ohio singles state championship and was named the state runner-up in back-to-back singles state championships in 2011-12.

MELISSA SCHAUB
Head Coach
Second season

Melissa Schaub is in her second season as the head coach of the Ohio State women's tennis team after spending 2012-13 as the interim head coach. At the helm as interim head coach, she guided the Buckeyes to 10 wins in dual matches, including Big Ten conference victories vs. Penn State, Minnesota and Iowa. The squad, which ranked as high as No. 41 in the ITA poll, notched four shutouts on the year and a pair of victories against top 50 opponents. Schaub, a Lexington, Ohio, native who had a standout collegiate career at Tennessee, was on the coaching staff at Middle Tennessee State for five seasons, including one as head coach (2010-11), prior to joining the Ohio State staff as an assistant coach in 2011-12.

Schaub played four years for the Tennessee Volunteers (2003-06), where she was ranked as high as No. 2 nationally in doubles and the squad reached the No. 4 spot in the national polls during her career.

She was an All-American and second team All-SEC selection as a freshman, finishing the year ranked sixth nationally. Although struggling with injuries as a sophomore and junior, she posted 25 dual-match doubles wins. As a senior, Schaub played at Nos. 2 and 3 singles before moving into the No. 1 position in early April where she went 3-0 in the SEC tournament. She was ranked nationally in doubles as a senior with partner Vilmarie Castellvi and ended her career with 70 doubles wins to rank in the Top 10 in program history.

Schaub was a member of the SEC Good Works Team and SEC Academic Honor Roll and was the recipient of the athletics department's "No Guts, No Glory" award as a senior. She graduated with a degree in psychology in 2006.

Schaub was a two-sport athlete at Lexington High School, playing both tennis and basketball. She won the Ohio state singles title as a senior in 2001 when she led her squad to a third-place finish at the state tournament. She was a part of four conference and district championship squads during her career.

Schaub's brother, Ty, played for the Ohio State men's tennis team and served as a captain as a senior when the Buckeyes were the NCAA runner-up. He is currently the assistant coach at Penn. Her sister, Courtney, was on the tennis team at Cumberland University from 2008-12.

She is the daughter of Ron Schaub and Mindy Cooper. Her father, who played tennis at Ohio University, is the teaching pro at Lakewood Racquet Club and boys and girls tennis coach at Lexington High School.

BRYAN KONIECKO
Associate Head Coach
Second season

Bryan KoniECKO is in his second season with the Ohio State women's tennis team. He was promoted to associate head coach in Summer 2013, after serving as the assistant coach in 2012-13. Prior to returning to his alma mater, KoniECKO spent three seasons as the assistant coach for the men's tennis program at Brown.

In his collegiate career at Ohio State, KoniECKO was a standout player who helped lead his team to Big Ten regular season and tournament titles in each of his four years as a Buckeye. He was named the Big Ten Athlete of the Year in 2008 and 2009, as well as the 2006 Big Ten Freshman of the Year. As captain, KoniECKO won the ITA National Intercollegiate Indoor singles title and was ranked No. 1 in the country individually. Ohio State was also ranked No. 1 in the country his senior year and reached the final of the NCAA team tournament.

After graduating from Ohio State with a degree in communication analysis and practice, KoniECKO played at the professional level where he reached an ATP career high ranking of 651. He earned his first professional title in 2007 when he won the ITF professional futures event in Ecuador. In 2008, he was a runner up in the ITF professional futures event in Peoria, Ill.

As a junior, KoniECKO traveled to more than 17 countries to compete in tournaments including the Junior Australian Open and Wimbledon. He was ranked as high as No. 45 in the ITF world junior rankings with a win over Marin Cilic and was ranked Top 10 nationally in the Boys' 16s and 18s. The Long Island, N.Y., native also competed in the 2007 and 2008 U.S. Open qualifiers.

JEREMY FLEMING
Volunteer Coach
First season

Jeremy Fleming is in his first season as volunteer coach for the Ohio State women's tennis team. The Chertsey, England, native played collegiate tennis at Cumberland University in Lebanon, Tenn. While playing for the Bulldogs, Fleming helped lead the squad to nationals his last two seasons, including a quarterfinal appearance his senior year when Cumberland finished seventh in the NAIA poll.

While in England, Fleming played at Weybridge Tennis Academy and St. George's Hill Lawn Tennis Club under the guidance of Justin Sherring.

FIDAN MANASHIROVA
Student Assistant Coach
First season

Fidan Manashirova is in her first year as student assistant coach for the Ohio State women's tennis team. Manashirova, a member of the Scarlet and Gray from 2009-13, is finishing her degree in communications at Ohio State.

Manashirova, a four-year letterwinner, ended her career with the Buckeyes fifth all-time in career singles wins with 89 victories and fifth all-time in career singles win percentage at .701 (89-38). She was a member of the highest ranked squad in Ohio State history, the No.17-ranked 2009-10 team, which captured an all-time high 20 wins and tied for third in the Big Ten.

Hailing from Elk Grove, Calif., Manashirova was named the team's co-MVP her sophomore and junior years after posting a 14-match singles win streak en route to a 27-win season in 2010 and notching a team-high .771 singles winning percentage in 2011. In her senior season, Manashirova led the Buckeyes with 24 wins, including 15 in dual matches, and a team-best eight wins in Big Ten competition. She was recognized as an Academic All-Big Ten selection and Ohio State Scholar-Athlete as a senior.

CARRIE SMITH
Director of Tennis Operations
Seventh season

Carrie Smith enters her seventh year as the director of operations for the women's tennis team and her second season in this role for the men's and women's squads. Smith serves a multitude of roles for the team, from organizing travel arrangements to overseeing alumni, community service and fundraiser programs. She also facilitates summer tournaments and camps for Ohio State, including the Campus Showdown and summer ITA competitions.

Tennis has been a lifelong passion for Smith, and she is currently a member of four adult teams at the Olympic Tennis Club and Racquet Club. She is also a USPTA certified teaching pro.

Smith is from South Bend, Ind., and graduated from Butler University. She has two sons, Nicholas and Andrew.

2012-13 YEAR IN REVIEW

Behind a trio of dedicated seniors and rising young talent, the Ohio State women's tennis team concluded the 2012-13 season with an overall mark of 10-14. The Buckeyes transitioned into a new coaching staff under interim head coach Melissa Schaub and welcomed back former Ohio State men's tennis standout Bryan Koniecko as assistant coach.

The Buckeyes kicked off the fall season as hosts of the Muirfield Collegiate Tennis Invitational where redshirt freshman Nicole Flower earned her first collegiate victory in her debut match. Kara Cecil and Kelsey Dieters, the Buckeyes' winningest tandem this season, made a quarterfinal run at the USTA/ITA Regional Championships Oct. 21, while Flower prevailed in the qualifiers to earn a spot in the main singles draw of the tournament. Playing at the No.1 singles position, Kelsey Dieters collected two of her team-best four victories this season over ranked opponents after topping Tennessee's No. 18 Brynn Boren and NC State's No. 19-ranked Joelle Kissell at the Lady Vols Classic in Knoxville, Tenn. Grainne O'Neill posted her first collegiate victory in a three-set triumph vs. Tennessee. Ohio State closed out the fall with strong showings at the ASU Thunderbird and Brown Classic and gained momentum that carried over into the early part of the spring season.

The Buckeyes opened the spring slate with four straight wins, including three consecutive shutout victories at the Varsity Indoor Tennis Center. Dieters began the spring campaign ranked at No. 41, the highest ranked Buckeye since 2008. The Scarlet and Gray traveled to Montgomery, Ala., to participate in the Blue Gray Tennis Classic March 15, where they captured a fourth place finish and posted a sweep of Boise State, 4-0.

The squad posted notable wins in upsetting No. 44-ranked Arkansas in Fayetteville, Ark., 4-3, and conference foe No. 35-ranked Penn State, 5-2, at home. The Buckeyes, who were ranked as high as No. 41 in the ITA polls this season, also tallied wins vs. Iowa and Minnesota in Big Ten contests.

Fidan Manashirova led the Scarlet and Gray with 24 singles wins, including a team-best eight wins in conference play. Steele collected 23 victories to finish fourth in career singles wins in program history with 90 singles wins. Manashirova ended her career in fifth with 89 career singles victories. The senior duo of Manashirova and Steele tied for a team-high three conference wins with Kelsey Becker and O'Neill.

Freshman Grainne O'Neill tallied a team-best six doubles wins in Big Ten contests, while Steele and Dieters accounted for 18 doubles wins each to lead the Buckeyes. Ohio State notched a 10-2 ledger when clinching the doubles point.

All eight eligible players were named Academic All-Big Ten and the program was recognized by the NCAA for posting an APR in the Top 10 percent of all Division I women's tennis teams.
