

The Ohio State men's hockey team had an outstanding season in 2004-05, highlighted by a second-place finish in the CCHA regular season, a third-consecutive NCAA tournament appearance and a fourth consecutive 20-win season.

With a 21-5-2 record in conference play, the Buckeyes finished second for the first time since 1984 and posted the highest winning percentage in CCHA play in program history (78.6). The 21 league wins were the most since the 1984 campaign. The squad advanced to the CCHA Super Six championship game for the second year in a row, dropping a tough 4-2 loss to top-seed Michigan.

The Buckeyes earned an at-large berth into the NCAA tournament for the third consecutive season, marking a first for the program. The team has qualified for the NCAA tourney five times, all in the last eight years.

The team's 27 wins tied for the second most in program history. The four-consecutive 20-win seasons was a team first. OSU has had six seasons with 20 or more wins under head coach John Markell.

Individually, freshman Tom Fritsche led the Buckeyes in scoring with 45 points, the most for a Buckeye freshman since Brian Loney had 55 in 1992. Fritsche was named the InsideCollegeHockey.com Freshman of the Year and earned CCHA All-Rookie Team honors. Juniors Rod Pelley and Nate Guenin earned Second Team All-CCHA honors. Sophomore Matt Beaudoin had a team-best 23 goals and led the league and was tied for second in the nation with 14 power-play goals, followed by Pelley with 13. Junior goalie Dave Caruso set program records for goalie wins in a season (25) and single-season goals-against average (2.14).

Attendance figures rose dramatically from the 2003-04 season, as Ohio State led the CCHA in regular-season attendance with an average of 6,977 actual fans a game in 2004-05.

The Buckeyes had four games with over 11,000 fans - 14,777 vs. Michigan Jan. 21, followed by 12,391 against the Wolverines Jan.

22, 11,848 vs. Miami March 5 and 11,570 vs. Bowling Green Feb. 12.

The team's games vs. Michigan (Jan. 21-22) both sold out prior to the weekend, marking the first time in program history both games in a series were sold out.
