The men’s lacrosse program moved into the Schumaker Complex in the fall of 2018, a $40 million-plus facility complete with its own locker room and film room.

“It is a groundbreaking facility that features a new locker room, team film room and first-class weight room,” Nick Myers, Ohio State head coach, said. “Being a Buckeye is very special and knowing you can attract great people and put them in the best position for successful development with outstanding facilities is very exciting to us all.”

The new training hub for the 33 Olympic sports teams at Ohio State, the new state-of-the-art facility hosts the nutritional, physical and psychological development of more than 800 Ohio State student-athletes.

“We are excited at the impact this new facility will have on our men’s lacrosse program,” Janine Oman, Ohio State SWA and senior associate athletics director, said. “This facility will house the most innovative sport science technology and personnel to better train, perform and recover our student-athletes in the safest and most efficient manner possible. The Schumaker facility has been designed to encourage student-athlete interaction. The men’s lacrosse team will be able to engage with other student-athletes, which builds upon the Buckeye family tradition we enjoy here at Ohio State no matter the sport you play.”

In addition to locker rooms for seven other teams, the complex is also comprised of a sports nutrition and dining center, sports medicine and athletic training center, strength and conditioning center and classroom space for professional development for both current and former student-athletes.

In 11 seasons at the helm of the Ohio State men’s lacrosse program, head coach Nick Myers has taken the Buckeyes to places they’ve never been before. And through his tireless efforts — and those of his coaching staff — he also has Ohio State primed for even greater heights moving forward.

Over his first 11 seasons, Myers has posted a 101-74 ledger overall and a 33-27 conference record. Ohio State’s ascension culminated with a trip to the 2017 Final Four and national championship game. Myers also has the programs first postseason title on his resume (2013 ECAC Tournament championship), in addition to two Creator’s Trophy titles, a share of a league regular-season title, a spot in the NCAA quarterfinals three times (2013, ’15, ’17) and to a No. 3 seed in the 2013 and 2017 NCAA Tournaments. In 2018, he was voted by his peers as the co-Big Ten Coach of the Year.

Under his tutelage, members of the program have garnered 21 USILA All-America honors, 44 all-conference nods and 11 conference player of the year accolades. Over the past 10 years, members of the Ohio State squad have earned 174 Academic All-Big Ten accolades and 243 Ohio State Scholar-Athlete nods, along with the first 12 USILA Scholar All-American selections in program history.

The team’s community service numbers rise each year, with the program volunteering more than 2,500 hours in the community the last six seasons combined.

This past spring, Myers and the Buckeyes got off to one of the best starts in school history, going unbeaten in non-conference play for the first time ever. With a 11-10 overtime win at Notre Dame, Myers became the first coach in program history to win 100 games. He coached two All-Big Ten selections – Ryan Terefenko and Justin Inacio — along with the conference’s co-Specialist of the Year (Inacio). He also led the Scarlet and Gray to their first-ever road wins at UMass, Hofstra and Johns Hopkins.

In 2018, Myers and the Buckeyes played their best lacrosse in the final month of the season, rallying to knock off No. 20 Michigan, No. 1 Maryland and No. 9 Rutgers in three consecutive weeks to earn a birth to the Big Ten Tournament. In the process, Myers also became the winningest coach in program history, notching his 93rd career triumph in a 10-7 victory over the Scarlet Knights. Myers and his staff coached a Big Ten Freshmen of the Year (Justin Inacio) for the second consecutive season while also producing four USILA All-Americans: Ben Randall (first team), Ryan Terefenko (third team), Tre Leclaire (honorable mention) and Erik Evans (honorable mention).

Myers’ 2017 team put together a memorable run that resulted in the program’s first-ever trip to Championship Weekend. The Buckeyes set a school record by winning 16 games and by virtue of a 16-11 win over Duke in the NCAA Quarterfinals, advanced to the Final Four. In Foxboro, the Buckeyes came from behind to beat Towson in the national semifinals, punching a ticket college lacrosse’s biggest stage: the NCAA title game. Along the way, several of Myers’ players earned recognition: junior defenseman Ben Randall became the first Buckeye in program history to be a USILA First Team All-American while faceoff specialist Jake Withers earned second team honors, Tre LeClaire and Tom Carey were third team selections and Eric Fannell and Ryan Terefenko were honorable mention choices. The four first/second/third team honorees are a program best.

During the Summer of 2016, Myers led Team USA to the gold medal at the FIL Under-19 World Championship. The squad was 6-0 in the tournament and rallied from an 8-2 deficit in the championship game to win the title, Team USA’s eighth consecutive gold medal. Myers will coach the Team USA U19 squad once again this summer at the World Championship in Limerick, Ireland.

The 2016 the Buckeyes (7-8) took on a Top 20 team in eight of their final nine games and had five one-goal decisions. Buckeyes claimed half of the Big Ten Player of the Year awards, with Robby Haus named defensive player of the year and Jake Withers receiving specialist honors; both were also named First Team All-Big Ten. Haas, who was a Third Team All-American, was joined by Carter Brown as Third Team All-American, as Jesse King and Haus were named to the third team and Eric Fannell and Ryan Terefenko were honorable mention choices. The four first/second/third team honorees are a program best.

In 2015, Myers led the Buckeyes into a new era, as the Big Ten Conference sponsored men’s lacrosse for the first time. Ohio State, which ended the year 12-7 overall (3-2 B1G), advanced to the inaugural Big Ten Tournament championship game and earned an at-large spot in the NCAA Tournament. In the first round of the NCAA tourney, the Buckeyes went on the road and defeated two-time defending champion Duke before falling in the quarterfinals to eventual national champion Denver. During the season, the Buckeyes claimed the Creator’s Trophy with road wins over Penn State and Michigan and topped three of the NCAA semifinalists while also hosting the Showdown in The Shoe returned to Ohio Stadium, with the Buckeyes downing Michigan in front of more than 31,000 fans prior to the Ohio State football spring game. Joe Meurer was named the ECAC Defensive Player of the Year and led eight Buckeyes as all-conference selections. Meurer and King, a Tewaaraton Award Top 25 candidate, earned USILA All-America accolades, with King on the third team and Meurer an honorable mention pick. Meurer also was named a Scholar All-American by the USILA.

In 2014, the Buckeyes (6-8) shared the ECAC regular season title in the last year competing in the conference, posting a 3-1 league ledger and earning a spot in the conference tournament. The Showdown in the Shoe returned to Ohio Stadium, with the Buckeyes downing Michigan in front of more than 31,000 fans prior to the Ohio State football spring game. Joe Meurer was named the ECAC Defensive Player of the Year and led eight Buckeyes as all-conference selections. Meurer and King, a Tewaaraton Award Top 25 candidate, earned USILA All-America accolades, with King on the third team and Meurer an honorable mention pick. Meurer also was named a Scholar All-American by the USILA.

In 2013, the Buckeyes (13-4) werebies six ranked opponents Loyola and Denver lifted the Buckeyes to the ECAC tournament crown and the No. 3 seed in the NCAA tournament. Nearly 2,400 fans – a number that ranked fourth nationally among all first-round sites – watched the Buckeyes beat Towson 16-6 to advance to the NCAA quarterfinals for the second time in school history.

Individually, Logan Schuss became the program’s all-time leading goal scorer and a two-time ECAC Offensive Player of the Year, as well as the first Buckeye to earn first team all-conference accolades four times. Schuss was a second team All-American and Dominique Alexander, King and Meurer all were named honorable mention All-Americans, just the second time in program history four Buckeyes were recognized and the first time since 2008. Three Buckeyes – Schuss, Alexander and Trey Wilkes – were named USILA Scholar All-Americans.

The 2012 campaign saw the Buckeyes (8-7) earn a spot in the ECAC tournament semifinals after finishing second in the regular season with a 5-1 league ledger. Schuss was named the ECAC Offensive Player of the Year and joined Joe Bonanni on the USILA All-America third team, with four Buckeyes named to the All-ECAC team. Matt Kawamoto and Bonanni became the first USILA Scholar All-Americans in program history.

In 2011, the Buckeyes (8-8) earned a spot in the inaugural ECAC tournament. The team was 5-2 at home, including a 13-8 upset of No. 3-ranked North Carolina Feb. 19 in Ohio Stadium, the program’s first win over a Top 3 opponent in history. A record 28 Buckeyes were invited to the Scholar-Athlete dinner, with a league-high 10 Ohio State players named to the ECAC All-Academic team. Kawamoto, a USILA Honorable Mention All-American, picked up ECAC Defensive Player of the Year accolades and was one of four Buckeyes named to the all-conference teams.

In 2010, the Buckeyes (7-8) faced one of the toughest schedules in the nation as they began play as a member of the ECAC Lacrosse League. The squad had a 5-2 ledger at home, and highlighting the home slate was the third-annual Showdown in The Shoe when the Buckeyes topped Air Force with an NCAA record attendance of 31,078. Schuss was named ECAC Rookie of the Year and became the first Buckeye freshman to nab All-America honors after leading the ECAC in points per game and was one of two Buckeyes recognized on the all-conference team.

In 2009, his first season at the helm of the Buckeye program, Myers led Ohio State (8-8) to a spot in the Great Western Lacrosse League championship game after a third-place finish in the league’s regular-season standings despite losing two All-Americans and four all-conference selections from the 2008 squad that reached the NCAA quarterfinals. Senior All-American Joel Dalgarno, who finished his career as Ohio State’s all-time leading goal scorer and ranked second all-time in points, led the GWLL and was sixth nationally with 3.81 points per game. In all, seven Buckeyes were named all-conference, with two first-team selections.

As the top assistant under Joe Breschi at Ohio State from 2006-08, Myers served as the offensive coordinator for the Buckeyes, oversaw recruiting and handled other aspects of the day-to-day operation of the men’s lacrosse program.

In 2008, Myers helped guide the Buckeyes to a share of the Great Western Lacrosse League regular-season title and an at-large berth into the NCAA tournament. The team downed Cornell on the road for the program’s first NCAA tournament victory and berth in the quarterfinal round. He was the offensive coordinator as the Buckeyes ended the season third in the NCAA in scoring offense (13.2 goals per game) and extra-man offense (45.7 percent).

Myers began his coaching career as the volunteer coach for the Buckeyes for two seasons (2002, ’03) and was on the Buckeye staff when the squad earned a spot in the NCAA tournament in 2003, the first appearance in program history, and shared the GWLL title. He spent the 2004 and ’05 campaigns as the top assistant coach at Butler before rejoining the Buckeye staff in 2006.

Myers played for Springfield College in Massachusetts, earning Division III All-America honors in 2001. He was a three-time All-NEWMAC selection and was the 2000 conference player of the year.

Myers graduated from Springfield with a degree in sports studies/physical education in 2001. In 2016 he was named to the inaugural Springfield College 40 Under 40 class.

A native of Kennebunk, Maine, Myers graduated from Kennebunk High School in 1997. He was a two-time high school All-American and participated in the 1997 North-South All-Star Game.

Myers married the former Julie Cowles, also a Springfield College graduate. The couple lives in Columbus with their sons, Mason and Zachary.

Myers’ brother, Pat, was a four-year letterwinner for the Buckeyes from 2000-03, a two-time All-Great Western Lacrosse League honoree and the conference rookie of the year in 2000. He has been an assistant coach at North Carolina, Cornell, Bucknell and Penn and was hired in June as the head coach at Lafayette College.
Dylan Sheridan, the architect of Cleveland State’s men’s lacrosse program and its head coach since 2015, was hired by Ohio State as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator on July 15, 2019.

Beginning in 2015 and continuing through their debut on the field in 2017, Sheridan steadily built the Vikings program from the ground up. It culminated in 2019 when Cleveland State won seven of its final 10 games and doubled its win total from the previous season. CSU posted a winning record in just its third season of existence while facing six teams among the top 25 in the NCAA’s RPI.

Cleveland State’s improvement was not only evident in the win column, but also on the stat sheet. The Vikings finished ranked in the Top 25 in eight different statistical categories—opponent clearing percentage (No. 1, .707), face-off win percentage (No. 6, .631), assists per game (No. 17, 7.53), scoring defense (No. 19, 10.27 goals/game), caused turnovers (No. 22, 8.93 per game), clearing percentage (No. 22, .853), points per game (No. 25, 19.00) and ground balls per game (No. 25, 32.60).

Prior to the breakout season in 2019, the Sheridan-led Vikings put together some notable efforts in 2018. Sheridan increased the Vikings’ DI win total to four while facing six teams among the top 25 in the NCAA’s RPI. Included among those four victories was Cleveland State’s first road win over a Division I foe—an 8-7 victory at defending Southern Conference champion Air Force. In 2017, utilizing a roster comprised almost entirely of true freshmen, Sheridan led the Vikings to five wins in their inaugural season. CSU played one of the toughest schedules in the nation despite being a first-year program, as the Vikings faced five teams that qualified for the NCAA Tournament, three that advanced to the quarterfinals, two that made the semifinals and a national finalist (Ohio State).

Sheridan built the Cleveland State program after spending the 2015 season as the defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Princeton where he was responsible for the training and coaching of the defense, clearing and faceoff units.

From 2011 through 2014, Sheridan was an assistant coach at the University of Denver, helping the Pioneers to NCAA semifinal appearances in 2011, 2013 and 2014. Denver also won three regular-season conference championships in four years with Sheridan, twice winning the ECAC and also claiming a BIG EAST crown. Sheridan joined the Denver staff first as a volunteer assistant coach. He helped the 2011 team to a then-program-record 15 wins and an unbeaten conference mark. His faceoff unit finished 15th nationally in winning percentage after ranking 36th the year prior to his arrival.

After attending Western Reserve Academy in Hudson, Ohio and helping his team to three Ohio high school state championship games, Sheridan graduated from Claremont McKenna College in 2006 as a double major in psychology and film studies. While at Claremont McKenna, Sheridan was a member of the club lacrosse team, serving as team captain three times. He began his coaching career at Division II Pfeiffer and also coached at Division III Lebanon Valley. His wife, Brianne Tierney, played lacrosse at both Loyola and Colgate and is the head women’s lacrosse coach at Kent State. The couple have a 2-year-old son.

Travis Crane joined the Ohio State men’s lacrosse staff as a volunteer assistant coach in September 2016 and was promoted to assistant coach in Summer 2017. Crane, a captain at Penn State, had spent the past three years coaching at Calvert Hall College High School in Baltimore and as director of operations for FCA Maryland.

Crane’s 2019 defensive unit held six opponents to 10 goals or less and was 28th nationally in scoring defense. He also mentored one of the strongest shot stick defensive units in the country, led by All-American and first team All-Big Ten choice Ryan Terefenko.

Under Crane’s guidance, the 2018 Buckeyes continued their tradition of playing strong defense. Crane coached two All-Americans on the close defensive unit (Ben Randall and Erik Evans) and Ohio State ranked first in the Big Ten in goals-against average for the second consecutive year. In wins over Michigan, Maryland and Rutgers to close the regular season, Ohio State gave up just 7.00 goals per game.

With Crane on staff, the 2017 campaign was the best in Ohio State history. The squad notched a program-record 16 wins and advanced to the NCAA Tournament semifinals and final for the first time. The Buckeyes, who played in the Big Ten Tournament championship game, limited opponents to 8.38 goals per game, ranking first in the Big Ten and 11th in the NCAA in scoring defense, and held opponents to nine or fewer goals in 13 games. A program-record tying six Buckeyes earned USILA All-America honors, with defenseman Ben Randall the first First Team All-American in program history and Tom Carey the first Buckeye goalie to earn a spot on the first/second/third team.

In his time with Calvert Hall, Crane served as the defensive coordinator for the school’s varsity lacrosse team and guided the squad to the lowest goals-against average in the MIAA “A” conference. In addition, Crane helped coach the school’s junior varsity program to two championship appearances. With FCA Maryland he served as both a coach and administrator for the club program.

A short stick defensive midfielder, Crane spent two years at Penn State, serving as a co-captain in his senior season and leading the team to the NCAA tournament. He was an Academic All-Big Ten selection and was selected for the USILA North-South Senior All-Star game. In his time at Penn State, Crane tallied three goals, picked up 27 groundballs and had 15 caused turnovers.

A native of Parkville, Md., Crane spent the 2011 season at Community College of Baltimore County Essex in Baltimore, picking up 42 points (26g, 16a) and 52 groundballs. He was a First Team All-American and was named the Maryland Junior College Midfielder of the Year.

Crane earned a master’s degree in educational leadership and administration from Penn State. He also earned a bachelor’s degree in financial economics from the University of Maryland Baltimore County.
Andrew Vossler, who brings six years of collegiate coaching experience at all three NCAA levels, was named Ohio State’s volunteer assistant coach in August of 2018.

In his first season with the Scarlet and Gray, Vossler helped face-off specialist Justin Inacio earn Big Ten co-Specialist of the Year honors. The sophomore led the conference with a .637 win percentage and had 120 ground balls. As a team, the Buckeyes finished the regular season 10th nationally in face-off win percentage (.619).

With Vossler’s help, Jacksonville had a five-win improvement in 2018 and advanced to the program’s first-ever Southern Conference Tournament Championship game. Vossler worked extensively with the long-stick midfielders and short-stick defensive midfielders and mentored all-conference selection Ryan Beville, who was drafted last spring by the MLL’s Florida Launch. Jacksonville finished first in the league – and No. 3 nationally – in face-off win percentage (.701), second in goals-against average (10.34/game) and first in ground balls (33.20/game).

In 2016 and 2017, Vossler served as defensive coordinator and worked with the face-off units at his alma mater, Rollins College in Winter Park, Fla. Under Vossler’s guidance, the Tars made program history as the defensive units allowed less than 10 goals per game in back-to-back seasons. Additionally, the team improved its face-off win percentage from .450 to .526 in 2016. Vossler mentored five All-Sunshine State Conference selections, including two first team picks.

Vossler spent the 2015 season as a volunteer assistant coach at Jacksonville and was instrumental in elevating the team’s overall face-off win percentage from .450 to .526 in 2016. Vossler guided the Dolphins from being ranked 64th to 22nd nationally in face-off win percentage as a team. Individually, Vossler took the team’s top face-off specialist and increased his win percentage from .429 to .548, ranking 21st nationally at the face-off X.

Prior to his time in Duval, Vossler served as an assistant coach and defensive coordinator at John Carroll University in University Heights, Ohio in 2014. Vossler’s guidance helped the Blue Streaks to a 13-4 record in its inaugural Division III season, capped by an appearance in the Ohio Athletic Conference Tournament Championship game. Seven players earned All-OAC honors as Vossler’s defensive units combined for an OAC-leading 6.85 goals-against average, good for 16th in the nation among DIII teams.

Vossler began his coaching career in 2013 at Division II Adams State in Alamosa, Colorado. As the Grizzlies’ assistant coach and defensive coordinator, Vossler also facilitated and implemented a strength and conditioning program for the team.

A four-year member of the men’s lacrosse team at Rollins from 2009-12, Vossler was a three-time team captain and three-time All-Deep South selection. He currently ranks in the top five in several statistical categories in the Tars’ record books, including second all-time in ground balls (192) and caused turnovers (72); third in ground balls per game (3.84) and caused turnovers per game (1.44); and fourth all-time after starting all 50 games of his career.

A native of Manlius, N.Y., Vossler earned his bachelor’s degree in environmental studies from Rollins in 2012. He is married to the former Jess Hotchkiss, who was a standout on the Dolphin women’s lacrosse team from 2010-13.

The 2018-19 campaign was the 10th for Mark Bergey as the director of operations for the Buckeyes and 11th with the men’s lacrosse program. Bergey spent the 2009 season as Ohio State’s volunteer assistant coach after two years as an assistant coach and defensive coordinator at Western New England College, his alma mater. In 2008 the squad was ranked in the Top 10 the majority of the season and the Bears ended the 2007 campaign ranked third nationally. The team made the NCAA tournament quarterfinals both years Bergey was on the staff.

Bergey was a four-year standout for the Golden Bears, serving as the team’s captain in 2006 and helping lead the squad to ECAC Division III New England championships in 2004 and ’05. Bergey, who was named the team’s Unsung Hero in both 2003 and ’05, was a two-time All-Pilgrim League selection and played in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) Division III North-South Senior All-Star Game.

A native of Ambler, Pa., Bergey earned his bachelor’s degree in sociology from WNEC in 2006. He and his wife, Bridget, reside in Columbus and are the parents of a one-year-old son, JC.

Kevin Enchelmeyer is in his first season as the strength and conditioning coach with the men’s lacrosse program. He also works with the Buckeyes’ field hockey and women’s lacrosse programs.

Enchelmeyer came to Ohio State from Notre Dame where he served as an Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach. In this role, Enchelmeyer is tasked with designing and implementing sports performance programs for both the men’s lacrosse and Fighting Irish track and field programs.

Prior to working at Notre Dame, Enchelmeyer worked as an assistant strength & conditioning coach at Northwestern State University. He also served as an intern with the University of Kentucky’s football program, and worked as an intern with both Notre Dame and Kentucky’s Olympic Sports teams.

Enchelmeyer received his bachelors degree from DePauw University in May of 2012 and went on to achieve his masters at the University of Kentucky in December of 2013. Originally from Monroe, Ohio, he currently resides in Columbus.
Angie Beisner marks her 21st year at The Ohio State University in 2019-20, and has recently been appointed head athletic trainer. She works primarily with men’s lacrosse while overseeing the health care for 35 sports at Ohio State.

Upon graduation from Ohio State, Beisner pursued a graduate assistant athletic training position at Eastern Kentucky University where she earned a master’s degree in secondary education with a specialization in allied health science. She worked primarily with football and women’s basketball.

From there, Beisner continued her career at Oklahoma State University as an assistant coordinator of sports until August 1999 where she taught physical education basic athletic training. At Oklahoma State Beisner worked with football, women’s basketball and golf.

In 1999 Beisner returned to Ohio State, working with men’s and women’s volleyball and track field and supervising the St. John Arena athletic training room, before moving to her current position.

Beisner is co-author on several publications and spent the past year as the athletic trainer for the USA U19 Men’s Lacrosse team which won gold at the 2016 FIL Championship.

She has also received several honors including the 2015 Linda Weber Daniels Outstanding Mentor award and has previously been recognized as the OATA Athletic Trainer of the Year and with the Alan Brady Service Award for her work with Buckeye men’s lacrosse.

Madison Reid joined the Ohio State men’s lacrosse staff as Director of Events in 2016. She handles a number of areas for the Buckeyes, managing alumni and special events, overseeing community service efforts, working with the program’s career development program and handling Buckeye lacrosse camps and clinics.

Reid, from Waterville, Ohio, earned her bachelor’s degree in sport industry from Ohio State, with a specialization in communications, at spring commencement. She then went on to receive a master’s degree in sport management at Ohio State.

As an undergraduate, Reid worked in a number of areas within athletics. She was the student manager for the Buckeye women’s volleyball team and served as the team’s Director of Operations. She has been an intern with both the event management and sports camps offices. Reid began working with the Buckeye lacrosse program in the winter following the conclusion of the volleyball campaign. She also was a facility assistant at Jesse Owens Recreational Centers through the Office of Student Life.

2016 marked the eighth edition of the Showdown in The Shoe, the annual Ohio State men’s lacrosse game played prior to the Buckeye football team’s spring game. Record setting crowds have filed into Ohio Stadium to cheer on the Scarlet and Gray, with the 2010 (31,078), 2009 (30,192) and 2008 (29,601) editions of the game marking the Top 3 attendance records for a regular-season game in NCAA Division I men’s lacrosse history. The Showdown in The Shoe was not held in 2017 because of the Big Ten schedule, but is back in 2018 when the Buckeyes face Michigan on April 14.

The first Showdown in The Shoe game was April 19, 2008, as Ohio State set NCAA regular-season and on-campus attendance records when 29,601 fans watched the Buckeyes down Denver prior to the football team’s spring game in Ohio Stadium. By the end of the lacrosse game, more than 50,000 fans were in The Shoe as the Buckeyes closed out a 20-13 victory over the Pioneers in a Great Western Lacrosse League contest.

The following year, the Buckeyes broke their own record when 30,192 were on hand when attendance was taken during the contest between the Buckeyes and Notre Dame April 25, 2009. The football spring game went on to set a national attendance record of 95,722, with many of those fans in the seats before the lacrosse game ended.

The 2010 edition again broke the national records, as 31,078 watched the Buckeyes down Air Force, 10-6, in an ECAC Lacrosse League game. The contest was televised on BTN, marking the first men’s lacrosse game broadcast live on the network. The 2011 and ’12 editions of the game, with Ohio State hosting Fairfield and Air Force in a league game, respectively, also were televised by BTN.

The Showdown in the Shoe was not held in 2013 because of construction in Ohio Stadium, but returned for 2014 and was the first matchup between Ohio State and Michigan as Division I foes in Columbus. The Buckeyes downed UM, 15-6, in the game televised on BTN. The 2015 game was the first as a Big Ten Conference contest, with Maryland prevailing over the Buckeyes in overtime, 10-9, in front of a crowd of 21,604, with about 40,000 fans in the stands by the end of OT and football breaking its own attendance record with 99,391 fans to watch the 2014 national champions. In 2016, the Buckeyes topped the Wolverines, 10-7, with an announced attendance of 24,571 that grew to 55,000+ by the end of the game. The football game followed and set the national spring attendance mark of 100,189.
2019 SEASON IN REVIEW

- The 2019 Buckeye lacrosse team finished 8-4 overall and secured its third straight winning season. Along the way, Ohio State had a host of individual accomplishments and registered several “firsts” in program history.

- Among Ohio State’s five wins away from home in 2019 were the program’s first-ever victories at Massachusetts, Hofstra and Johns Hopkins. The victory over UMass was highlighted by a four-goal performance from Tre Leclaire and a defensive effort that limited the Minutemen to just one second-half goal. Against Hofstra, Jack Myers had three goals and three assists and the Buckeyes scored 10 unanswered goals to open up a 14-4 second-half lead. Finally, the Buckeyes’ win over Johns Hopkins came after trailing 8-2 in the second quarter and was clinched on Jackson Reid’s goal with just 47 seconds left in regulation.

- With its 11-10 overtime win at Notre Dame, the Buckeyes not only defeated the Irish for the first time since 2004, it also completed a perfect 7-0 non-conference record – also a first in program history. Ohio State’s win over Notre Dame was also significant because it was the 100th in the career of head coach Nick Myers, who is the first coach in program history to reach the 100-career wins mark.

- Five Buckeyes – Ryan Terefenko, Jack Jasinski, Tre Leclaire, Justin Inacio and Matt Borges – were named USILA All-Americans. Ohio State’s five All-American selections were the second most in a single season.

- Matt Borges and Jack Jasinski were selected for the 78th USILA North-South Senior All-Star Game. They will be the 30th and 31st Ohio State representatives in program history

- Three members of the Ohio State men’s lacrosse team garnered Big Ten all-conference honors on Tuesday and sophomore Justin Inacio took home co-Specialist of the Year honors. It was the second major award for Inacio in as many years – last year, he was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

- Junior Ryan Terefenko was selected to the All-Big Ten first team while Inacio and Tre Leclaire earned spots on the second team. Senior captain Logan Mackan was Ohio State’s Sportsmanship honoree.

- In April, 36 lacrosse players were among the over 600 student-athletes honored at the annual Scholar-Athlete Dinner. The Buckeyes tied their program record for number of scholar-athletes, which represents 85 percent of its total roster.

- Tre Leclaire became the 12th player in program history to score 100 career goals. He’ll enter his senior season in 2020 fifth on the Buckeyes’ all-time goal-scoring list.

- Ohio State finished in the top 10 for face-off win percentage in the regular season for the third time in the last five years. Inacio led the Big Ten – and was No. 9 nationally – winning over 63 percent of the draws that he took.
