After leading the Buckeyes through the canceled 2020 season, the Buckeyes appeared in their 21st NCAA Tournament in 2021, entering the event as one of 12 at-large selections. All three NCAA boats qualified for the championships after a second-place finish in the 2021 Big Ten Regatta.

The Ohio State 1V8 ended the 2021 campaign No. 7 (NCAA No. 7 seed) behind the No. 5 2V8 (NCAA No. 6 seed) and the No. 4 1V4 (NCAA No. 6 seed).

Academically, the Buckeyes placed 64 on the 2021 Academic All-Big Ten squad and 65 were named 2021 OSU Scholar Athletes.

Sweeney returned to her alma mater as an assistant coach for the Buckeyes in August 2016. She came back to Ohio State after spending the previous year as a volunteer assistant at California-Berkeley, helping the Bears to a national championship in May 2016.

Prior to her one season in Berkeley, Sweeney spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Indiana where she was responsible for all aspects of the walk-on program, including recruiting, development and training. ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
ROBBIE TENENBAUM

Robbie Tenenbaum began his second stint at Ohio State July 13, 2017, this time as an associate head coach. Tenenbaum served as an assistant coach in Columbus from 1998-2006 primarily overseeing the Second Varsity Eight.

Now in Year Five of his second go around in Columbus, the Buckeyes have continued their winning ways.

Most recently, the Buckeyes appeared in their 21st NCAA Tournament in 2021, entering the event as one of 12 at-large selections. All three NCAA boats qualified for the championships after a second-place finish in the 2021 Big Ten Regatta.

The Ohio State 1V8 ended the 2021 campaign No. 7 (NCAA No. 7 seed) behind the No. 5 2V8 (NCAA No. 6 seed) and the No. 4 1V4 (NCAA No. 6 seed).

Academically, the Buckeyes placed 64 on the 2021 Academic All-Big Ten squad and 65 were named 2021 OSU Scholar Athletes.

During two years (2016 and 2017) in Norman, Okla., Tenenbaum helped coach the Sooners to back-to-back silver finishes at the Big 12 Championships. He instructed Maegan Neihart, the 2016 Big 12 Rower of the Year, and Carlijn Hutter, the 2017 Big 12 Rowing Newcomer of the Year.

Tenenbaum and the whole Oklahoma staff was named the 2017 Region 3 Staff of the Year for their work this past season that included the aforementioned Neihart and Hutter being named to the CRCA All-Region team. In his time leading the Tigers they had four All-Americans, five First Team All-South Region rowers and 11 rowers named All-ACC. Clemson also had at least six rowers named to the Academic All-ACC team in each of his four seasons as head coach.

Tenenbaum guided the Tigers’ first varsity eight beat to the ACC Crew-of-the-Year honor in 2011 while the first varsity four won an ACC title in 2012. Clemson also earned a top-15 finish at the NCAA Championship in his first season as head coach in 2011 and earned top-20 rankings nationally in 2012 and 2013.

He also received back-to-back CRCA Central Region Assistant Coach of the Year honors in 2005 and 2006. Primary responsibilities for Tenenbaum at Ohio State included overseeing the second varsity eight, recruiting and assisting with the varsity squad.

In 2005, the second varsity eight also finished first at the Big Ten Championship. 2022 ROWING

COACHING HISTORY

HEAD COACH
ANDY TETIELBAUM
24 SEASONS

Andy Tittlebaum spent 24 seasons as the head coach of the Ohio State women's rowing team from 1996-2019. As the first head coach of the Buckeyes since the program's inception in 1995-96, Tittlebaum directed the Scarlet and Gray to three-competitive NCAA titles (2013-15) and six consecutive Big Ten championships and a total of nine Big Ten titles overall, a conference record. Tittlebaum-led boats won seven national titles and 47 conference titles in event grand finals.

Tittlebaum, an eight-time conference and five-time central-region coach of the year, coached athletes to 50 All-America awards, including 33 first-team recognitions. Additionally, Tittlebaum-coached athletes earned 83 All-Big Ten awards and 79 All-Region accolades.

Academically, more than 200 student-athletes were named Academic All-Big Ten honorees. Tittlebaum mentored over 500 Buckeyes to Ohio State Scholar-Athlete laurels.

In 2018, Tittlebaum coached the Buckeyes to an unprecedented sixth-consecutive Big Ten Championship. Ohio State swept the championships, earning all 192 possible points, marking the first time a school has won all seven races since the adoption of the current format in 2013.

The first varsity eight won its third-straight national title in 2016 to become the first TV8 boat in NCAA history to win the title three years in a row. The first varsity eight boat for Ohio State was more than dominant over a three-year period (2014-16), it combined to go 125-2 in that time span including undefeated campaigns in 2014 and 2016. No matter what varsity boat it may be, Tittlebaum directed all of his crews to a winning f30 of greater than 70 percent in his 24 years of coaching. The TV4 (301-97/76.8 percent) has the highest percentage followed by the TV8 (638-195/76.6 percent), TV8 (679-238/74.0 percent) and TV4 (530-246/70.6 percent).

OSU racked up its fourth-consecutive Big Ten title in 2016 as well, setting a conference record for most titles in a row. Titles from the TV8, TV2, TV4 and TV4V boats propelled the Buckeyes to a sweeping victory. Catherine Shields was named the Big Ten and Ohio State Athlete of the Year for the 2015-16 calendar year. Shields, along with Sarah Asad, Sarah Davis and Stephanie Williams, were all named Division I Pocock First Team All-Americans by the Collegiate Rowing Coaches Association.

In due time after the 2016 season, Tittlebaum was named the Pocock Sculling Conference Women's Coach of the Year in December of 2016. It was the first time Tittlebaum received the honor.

In 2015, Ohio State became the first team in NCAA rowing history to win three-consecutive national titles and a resounding victory at the NCAA championships. Along with their historic third team title, the Buckeyes also claimed an individual national title in the first varsity eight, a runner-up finish in the second varsity eight and fifth place in the first varsity four. The historic win capped in grand fashion when the first varsity eight defeated previously unbeaten and No. 1-ranked California to cap a second-consecutive undefeated season. OSU also collected a third Big Ten title in a row and fourth in five seasons in 2015, becoming the first team in conference history to win three-consecutive team titles. The Buckeyes totaled a regatta-record 186 points and claimed gold in six of seven events, also a Big Ten record.

Four Buckeyes – Holly Norton, Ashley Bauer, Sarah Davis and Catherine Shields were named All-Americans. Bauer earned Ohio State Female Athlete of the Year honors and became the fifth OSU rower to be named Big Ten Rowing Athlete of the Year. Davis was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

Tittlebaum and the Buckeyes made history with their second-consecutive national title in 2014, becoming the fifth team to win back-to-back NCAA championships and the first since Brown in 2008. With gold medal finishes in the first varsity eight and second varsity eight, the Buckeyes became the fourth team in NCAA history to win both events at the national regatta in the same year. The first varsity eight ended the season with an unblemished record for its first national title in the event, becoming the second-consecutive Scarlet and Gray crew to finish the season undefeated after the second varsity eight did so in 2013.

Shields, Bauer, Norton, Victoria Lazar and Claire-Louise Bode collected All-Americans accolades. Shields received Ohio State Female Athlete of the Year honors and was named Big Ten Rowing Athlete of the Year.

A fifth Big Ten title and third in four years was also won in 2014 as team earned Big Ten titles in five events en route to 164 points and a comfortable victory.

The Buckeyes broke through on the national stage in 2013, capturing their first NCAA team championship in addition to national titles in the first varsity four and second varsity eight. In doing so, the Buckeyes became the first Big Ten rowing program and the first women's program at Ohio State to win an NCAA championship. In a record-setting year for Ohio State rowing, the Buckeyes won a second-consecutive national title in the first varsity four, which had previously brought home the program's first national title in 2012. In addition, the second varsity eight closed out the season with an unbeaten record and its first national title. Bobcye became the first rower under Tittlebaum to earn Ohio State Female Athlete of the Year honors and the third rower to be named Big Ten Rowing Athlete of the Year.

Ohio State captured its fourth conference title at the 2013 Big Ten Championships. In a tightly contested championship, the Buckeye first varsity eight clinched the team title after placing first in the final race of the morning to tally 63 points toward the team total and championship record 160 points. Altogether, Tittlebaum coached five of seven crews to gold medals.

The 2012 Big Ten Championship at Eagle Creek Park in Indianapolis, Ind., was won by Ohio State in dramatic fashion. The Buckeyes crossed the finish line for a 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-place finish overall at the NCAA championships. No. 10 Ohio State held a slim three-point lead over Wisconsin and a nine-point advantage over Michigan heading into the final race. A win or runner-up finish from the first varsity eight by the Buckeyes, Badgers or Wolverines would lock up the championship for that team. Ohio State crossed the line in 6:20.53 to take second place behind Michigan State, capturing its third Big Ten title.

Ohio State won its second Big Ten championship in 2006 courtesy of first-place finishes by the first and second varsity eights. Tittlebaum was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the second time in his career, complementing his three CRCA Central Region Coach of the Year awards (2002-04). The 2006 campaign also saw Ninett Kossowsky garner Big Ten Rower of the Year accolades.

The Buckeyes reached the top of the national rankings in 2004, holding the No. 1 ranking for five-consecutive weeks. The first varsity eight went undefeated in dual races (8-0) throughout the regular season, garnering four-consecutive Big Ten Boat of the Week honors. Annabelle Fago, a member of the first varsity eight, became the second Buckeye to earn Big Ten Freshman of the Year accolades (Phaedra Glidden, 2000).

Tittlebaum and the Buckeyes' first Big Ten championship came in 2002 after four crews (first novice eight, second varsity four, second varsity eight and first varsity eight) won their respective Grand Final races. Conny Kirsch became Ohio State's first Big Ten Rower of the Year honoré and was the first rower in conference history to earn three first-team All-Big Ten honors.

Six of Tittlebaum's former student-athletes have earned the prestigious distinction of being inducted into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame. Kirsch was the program's first inductee in 2007, while Maxi Messner (2000-03) solidified her place in Ohio State athletics history with her 2008 honor. In 2009, Karla Fiserova (2001-03) became the third rower to earn the coveted status. Former assistant coach Diana "Dilly" Albrecht (2002-05) was inducted as part of the Class of 2011 while Ninett Kossowsky (2002-06) was inducted as a member of the Class of 2013. Annabelle Fago (2004-07) is the most recent Hall of Fame addition as a member of the 2015 class.

A native of Plainview, N.Y., Tittlebaum spent seven years as head coach of the Rutgers women's rowing team prior to taking over as head coach at Ohio State. At Rutgers, he developed a competitive program consisting primarily of novice walkers. His teams took Top-10 finishes at the Eastern championships in five of his seven years as head coach and Rutgers won the Women's Points Trophy at the 1995 IRA Regatta.

Before taking over as head coach at Rutgers, Tittlebaum served as the freshman lightweight men's coach. Under his leadership, Rutgers crews raced for a dual record of 17-4, with his first crew posting an undefeated regular-season record. The team went on to take a silver medal at the Eastern championships.

Tittlebaum graduated Phi Beta Kappa with a bachelor's degree in economics from Rutgers in 1987.

SUCCESS STORIES

ILSE PAULIS
Former Ohio State rower Ilse Paulis and her lightweight sculls partner, Masika Head, were named the Dutch Team of the Year on Dec. 29, 2016, at the Dutch Sports Federation's year-end gala.

Paulis and Head, who did not even qualify for the Rio Olympics until a last chance regatta in May, won gold in the women’s lightweight double scull in Rio despite only being paired together for less than three months. The duo crossed the finish line with a time of 7:04.73 to edge Canada (7:05.88) by a narrow margin.

Paulis was a 2012 Big Ten Second Team honoree in her lone season as a Buckeye. She was a member of the First Varsity Eight that took second place at the Big Ten Championships. Paulis is a budding star in the sport of rowing having already captured an Olympic gold, and in 2014 at the U23 World Rowing Championships, she won gold in the lightweight single sculls.

EMILY WALSH
A member of the U.S. National Team, Walsh won a gold medal with the U.S. Women’s Eight at the 2012 World Rowing Under 23 Championships in Trakai, Lithuania.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Walsh began her rowing career as an Ohio State novice in 2008. She began rowing as a member of the varsity squad in 2010, competing with the First Varsity Eight for the remainder of her collegiate career and helping the team win its third Big Ten Conference title in 2011.

Walsh was named a Second Team IRA All-American as well being named First Team All-Central Region and First Team All-Big Ten during her senior year. Additionally, she earned Academic All-Big Ten and OSU Scholar-Athlete honors for three consecutive years.

MARGOT SHUMWAY
In 2012, Shumway rowed as a member of the U.S. pair in the women’s double sculls event at the London Olympics. The pair advanced to the Grand Final, placing sixth overall.

In 2008, Shumway rowed stroke for the women’s quadruple sculls in her first Olympic appearance in Beijing, China, and raced in the Rowing World Cup II in Lucerne, Switzerland. Shumway also represented the U.S. in the single scull at the 2009 Senior World Championships in Poznan, Poland.

She began her rowing career at Ohio State as a walk-on to the novice team in 2001. During the spring of 2001, she was promoted to the First Varsity Four at the NCAA championships in Georgia. The following season, Shumway raced in both the First and Second Varsity Eights and was instrumental in helping the V8 and the team win their first Big Ten Conference titles.

A number of other firsts, with the assistance of Shumway, occurred during the 2002 campaign. Ohio State achieved its first-ever Top 3 national ranking and the 1V8 became the program’s first boat to qualify for the Grand Final of the NCAA championships.

That same boat went on to win the Central Regional championship Grand Final. The Buckeyes followed their conference title with a then-program best-fourth-place finish at the NCAA championships. Kirsch’s individual accolades include earning first-team All-Americans honors in 2002 to complement her second-team laurels in 2000 and 2001. * Ties broken by finish in 1V8 Grand Final
SEASON SNAPSHOT
Crew is a noun that refers to one type of rowing. Crew refers to the larger rowing boats, Fours and Eights, which are typical of collegiate competition. Rowing is the name that the NCAA has adopted for the sport and uses officially in its championships.

Within the collegiate environment, Eights and Fours are the primary events that are contested. Those events are then broken down into Varsity, Junior (Second) Varsity, First Novice and Second Novice, as well as a lightweight category - which presents athletes who weigh less than 130 pounds. Varsity athletes are experienced rowers, whether they are freshmen or upperclassman, while novices are first-time, usually freshmen or sophomore rowers.

Rowing encompasses sweeping (one oar per person) and sculling (two oars per person). In college rowing, the athletes compete in only sweeping events. The larger boats usually have coxswains, who steer the boat. The minimum and most advantageous weight for a female coxswain is 100 pounds. They can either sit in the front (stern) or back (bow) of the boat.

When watching a team row, look for good timing. See if all the oars and bodies are moving together. Technique and synchronization are keys to being successful. Not only does each member have to do her part, but the crew must always work in sync. All strokes must be simultaneous; one rower can make the difference for the entire crew if they do not work together.

Head Races: Head races are traditionally held in the fall. Boats cross the starting line at full speed, separated by intervals of roughly 15 seconds, and usually navigate three miles of river around bends and under bridges. The crew in each event that completes the course in the shortest amount of time wins.

Sprints: Sprints are the primary mode of racing in spring regattas. In collegiate competition, these races are contested over 2,000 meters with a course of four to seven lanes. Depending on the venue, the start may be floating or staked and the lanes may be buoyed or unmarked.

Indoor Competition: An indoor regatta is a 2,000-meter race on ergometers or rowing machines. A rower’s primary form of winter training is erging.

Bow: the forward end of the boat which crosses the finish line first; the rower in the seat nearest the forward end of a shell who typically has a quick catch, stable technique and a shorter arc.

Blade: the end of the oar which pulls the boat through the water.

Bucket rigging: two riggers on the same side next to each other instead of alternated.

Coxswain (cox): the person who steers the boat. The coxswain either sits in the stern or lies in the bow giving commands to the rowers.

Ergs: short for ergometer; a land based rowing machine used for training that simulates the rower’s action in the boat and measures various items such as power, length, frequency, distance and time.

Lightweight: a crew on which each athlete weighs under a specific amount (130 pounds for women).

Novice: a rower in the first year of competition.

Regatta: the name of rowing events in which several crews compete.

Repechage: a second chance race for those crews which do not automatically advance to the finals of an event.

Rigger: the metal extensions protruding from the sides of the boat.

Run: the distance the shell moves during one stroke.

Sculling: a type of rowing where each rower uses two oars.

Shell: another word for the rowing boat. It seats nine people for an Eight and five people for a Four, and ranges in length from 45 feet for a Four to 58 feet for an Eight.

Stern: the back of the boat; the end the rowers face during competitions.

Sweeping: a type of rowing where each rower has one oar.

Varsity: the collegiate rower who competes beyond the novice level. Eights (8+) and fours (4+) are the most common collegiate competitions and the two events held at the NCAA championships. The plus indicates a coxswain on board.
