Buckeye Summer Throws Clinic
The Ohio State University is happy to announce our 2023 Buckeye Summer Throws Clinic. This clinic will consist of two sessions for athletes and coaches to join. Each session will have the option to throw discus and/or shot put. Athletes are more than welcome to spend part of a session in one event and move to the other later in the session. This is an opportunity for athletes to receive hands on coaching of their throw regardless of level. Our goal is to provide every athlete the opportunity to increase their throwing knowledge and skill set for continued growth.
